

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

A Week of Pleasure, with Numerous Dances, Card Parties, Dinners and Receptions.

DANCING IN THE COUNTRY

An English-American Literary Society
Formed—A War Song Concert
to be Given by Helena Musical Talent.

Lent begins late this year, but, for all that, if the Helena social season drags along as it is doing at present, the gaiety will be cut short all too quickly. It is to the belle, surfeited with parties, receptions and the like, to whom Lent comes like a haven of rest in the mad whirl of the social maelstrom. The evenings not occupied by dancing have been given over to card parties and the theatre. Card parties are greatly favored and very successful in providing congenial companionship for all. The progressive teas are much liked by many in other cities, although not inaugurated yet in this city. The seat is changed from one table to another with each course served. You don't get a chance to bore your neighbor nor to be bored.

An acceptable form of entertainment is always the dinner party. A few well chosen friends, an orderly and palatable menu, delicate without being of necessity elaborate, host and hostess who understand their duties and are able to skilfully direct conversations in the most agreeable channels—these are not only conducive but absolutely indispensable to successful entertaining. Some little souvenir may be offered, but all idea of great expense should be avoided. A story is told of a rich man, giving a dinner to some friends, placing a $20 gold piece beside each plate. The invitations to a recent small and very select dinner were written upon grass green cards, narrowly edged with gold, bearing appropriate quotations. This tint is lately used for letter paper, but not much, as the delicate cream and pearl white tints are more preferred. Monograms or pictorial decorations are often seen.

JUDGE DAVIS' RECEPTION.
On Wednesday evening Hon. and Mrs. Joseph Davis had a reception at their handsome residence on Ewing street. The house was beautifully ornamented with flowers, bright lights everywhere, and the handsome costumes of the ladies made up a scene of exceptional beauty. The members of the legislature with their wives were invited, and many of them attended. The success of the reception was most pronounced. Elaborate refreshments were served and Prof. Yeager and his musicians furnished pleasing music during the evening. Among the throng present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Moore, Wal. E. Thompson, Lee, Humbert, Haine and Gillette, Mrs. A. C. Botkin, Mrs. Woodman, Miss Lou Guthrie and Dollie Crounse, Messrs. Geo. B. Child, Spruille Braden, Col. Smith, Lee Mantle, Eardly, Hunt, Murray, Carver, Jones, Hoffman, Flowers, Saxton, Johnson, Swiggert, Kennedy, Conrad, Woodman, Joslyn, Middleton and Willis.

NEW LITERARY SOCIETY.
A society called the English-American Literary society were handsomely entertained by Dr. Leiser at his rooms in the opera house building, on Thursday evening. Original essays and poems by a few members of the society were read. Dr. Leiser opened the literary proceedings with an essay on "Edinburgh." Mr. Smedes read the "Dakota Bizzards," which not long since appeared in the Atlantic Monthly. Robert S. Hill recited finely an original poem, possessing much merit. A nice little supper was served during the evening. Those present were: Gen. Greene and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hill, Mrs. Smedes, Mrs. Kane, Miss Greene, Miss Dabney, Miss Kane, Messrs. Dabney, F. McLean and Dr. F. R. Musser.

A COUNTRY DANCE.
A large party, composed principally of members of the Crescent club, in big party wagons, drove out to Rogan's ranch, about five miles down the valley and held one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season, a country dance. A large number of people for miles around met them at the ranch and all proceeded to make merry. Mr. and Mrs. Rogan and their sons had arranged everything comfortably for their guests. A large carriage house had been cleared out for dancing and the time was fully improved. The music was good and inspiring. An elegant supper was served and it was late when the party drove away. Among those from the city, besides more than one hundred from the surrounding country, were: Messrs. and Mesdames Hindson, W. W. Brown, C. G. Evans, N. Fretz, Kohlberg, Smith, Brock, Ben Folk, Heckler, Strozier and Misses Davis, Anthony and Valentine.

WAR SONGS CONCERT.
The war songs concert, at the opera house, Tuesday evening, will be a departure from the usual mode of public entertainment in Helena. The local talent will be represented. Miss Shedd, who is the projector of the concert, is popular as a caterer to musical tastes. The proceeds will benefit a charitable institution, which will insure liberal patronage. Miss Shedd will give her audience an opportunity to voice their patriotism in one or more songs, also.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE RE PARTY.
Miss C. B. Runley gave a progressive euche party at her residence on Rodney street, Thursday evening, in honor of her friend, Miss Lillie Hershfield. There were ten card tables, the play was most absorbing, and the prizes well worth striving for. The first ladies' prize, a hand-painted fine china cup and saucer, was won by Miss Mabel Martin, of Great Falls, and the gentleman's prize, a pretty tobacco jar and pipe, by Mr. Daugherty. The booby prizes were a small pitcher with a dog in it, a soap, and the words "very weary," and a small flat iron on a standard, a very pretty ornament. The evening passed pleasantly, and the occasion will live long in the memories of those present as a delightful opportunity afforded them of meeting Miss Hershfield before her departure for New York.

Among those present were: Misses Lillie Hershfield, Mabel Martin, of Great Falls, Clara Wade, Nettie Rosenbaum, Lou Guthrie, Antoinette Chumash, Bessie Sligh, Helen Prosser, Pearl Davenport, Alice Crounse, Kate Child, Kate Carpenter, Antoinette Sadler, Mattie Atkinson, Eva Holman, Laura King, Nellie Withers, Edna Hodges, Serpita Sanders, Dr. Dean, Messrs. Sanders, Eugene Atkinson, C. F. Lee, George Hill, George Child, Judge Bach, Metten and Daugherty.

PIONEER CLUB DANCE.
The fourth of the season's dances of the Pioneer club was given Friday evening at the hall in the Granite block. The attendance, as usual, was large. The music, by Prof. Rossner's orchestra, was unusually fine. The following were present: Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Lehman, W. C. Child, H. E. Brunell, W. B. Webb, N. J.

THE MISSES STRADLING RECEIVE.
The Misses Stradling gave a social reception at the pleasant residence in the Sixth ward, Wednesday evening, to a large number of guests, who passed the time in music, conversation, games and plays.

LEARNING NEW DANCES.

Underservedly Laughed At.
The unthinking are prone to make game of nervousness. Yet this is a very real and serious affliction, the harassing symptoms of which are rendered all the more poignant by ridicule. The stomach is usually responsible for these symptoms—its weakness and disorder find a reflex in the brain, which is the headquarters of the nervous system. As a nerve tonic and tranquilizer, we believe that no one can be pointed out so effective as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In renewing vigorous digestion, it strikes the key note of recovery of strength and quietude by the nerves. Headaches, tremors in quiet sleep, abnormal sensitiveness to unexpected noises—all these modify and ultimately disappear as the system gains strength from the great tonic. Dyspepsia, biliousness, rheumatism, constipation and kidney complaints are subdued by the Bitters.

Job Work.
The INDEPENDENT job rooms are now the most complete in the territory. Within the past few weeks we have received a complete line of new type, and are now prepared to do both plain and fancy work on the shortest notice.

The following from the pen of Mr. L. P. Stridwell, editor of The Marion (Iowa) Pilot will, we believe, be of interest to many of our readers. He says: "It is with pleasure that I certify to the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have used it in my family for years and have always found it most excellent, and especially for colds, croup and sore throat. It is safe and effective." For sale by H. M. Parchen.

"I have used St. Patrick's Pills," says Mr. J. Reynolds, of Mayfield, Ky., "and recommend them to all who have ever before used. I do not hesitate to recommend them, knowing them to be reliable." They are thorough, yet gentle in their action and leave the system in splendid condition. As a cathartic, or for disorders of the liver, St. Patrick's Pills have no equal. For sale by H. M. Parchen.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its prompt and effectual cures of coughs and colds. The most severe cold may be loosened and relieved by a few doses of this valuable remedy. For sale by H. M. Parchen & Co.
